PROFILE

Over 10 years in hospitality bringing together operations, margin control and technology across hotels, fine dining, beach clubs and delivery.

My ground is openings and fine dining, as the bridge between the kitchen and the numbers: the team brings the creativity, and I add cost, profitability and a place on a balanced menu. I also roll out and integrate POS and stock management systems so that data reaches the people who make decisions.

EXPERIENCE

Cost Controller
Nov 2024 – Oct 2026

Grupo Trocadero · Costa del Sol

Premium dining and beach clubs: several venues and a central production kitchen. Operations team, reporting to general management.

- Rollout of Ágora POS across all venues as key user: from the decision and go-live to ongoing technical support.
- Integration with G-Stock, CoverManager and A3 and clean-up of the ingredient and recipe database: actual data that was previously unused, built into every department's work.
- Food & beverage cost per venue: theoretical vs. actual cost, variances and corrective actions; recipe costing with the kitchen (R&D) and menu engineering.
- Month-end closing and purchasing control: inventories, delivery notes, invoices and supplier approval.

Maître d'
May 2024 – Dec 2024

Hoteles Globales Gardenia · Fuengirola

3-star all-inclusive hotel, around 250 rooms.

- Front-of-house management across 4 outlets: buffet (breakfast, lunch, dinner, mid-morning and afternoon), pool bar and night bar with entertainment area.
- Ordering, inventories and cost control.
- Guest service and incident resolution.

Restaurant Consultant
2023 – 2024

Independent projects · Vigo and Madrid

Consulting alongside chef Miguel Fernández Vida, plus food fairs and UX design studies.

- Voltarei (Vigo): traditional Galician cuisine for tapas and sharing, with a more modern touch. Menu design, recipe costing and cost control system.
- Voltarei: kitchen team and digital training; support for the photo shoots for the digital menu and marketing.
- La Florería (Calle Ponzano, Madrid): recipe book and cost control built on the chef's own costing tool, to refresh the menu and improve profit.

EXPERIENCE (CONTINUED)

Maître d'

Sep 2023 – Nov 2023

Mercedes-Benz Gourmet Experience · Quito (Ecuador)

Fine-dining pop-up with a different guest chef every month and a permanent team in Quito.

- Opening of Mercedes-Benz's first restaurant in Latin America: hiring, front-of-house training, decoration and launch.
- Launch with press, television, interviews and influencers.
- Wine pairing, menu engineering and menu costing.

F&B Controller, Delivery

Jun 2021 – Dec 2022

Grupo Dani García · Málaga

La Gran Familia Mediterránea delivery project.

- Cost control through the project's expansion: from fewer than 10 to more than 20 restaurants in a year and a half.
- Cost control, inventory and month-end closing systems, with a disciplined method to invoice and close dozens of venues at once.
- Automated invoicing together with Spoonlab; sales analysis, procedures and logistics.

Supply and Restaurant Manager

Apr 2019 – Jun 2020

EatTasty · Madrid

Portuguese food start-up for companies. Spanish operations stopped with the pandemic.

- Onboarding of partner restaurants: dish selection and price negotiation under quality and portion standards.
- Supply chain and purchasing; supplier negotiation.
- Product development (R&D) for a daily home-style menu.

Restaurant and Bar Manager

Sep 2017 – Feb 2019

Restaurante Morgana · Madrid

Galician fusion cuisine in Chueca, with chef Miguel Fernández Vida.

- First employee: opening and launch, covering every position.
- No. 1 on Tripadvisor in Madrid during the first year, with a constant waiting list.
- Front-of-house and bar management, reservations and stock control.

Junior Sous Chef

Oct 2016 – Jul 2017

Restaurant Bodega21 · Geneva (Switzerland)

Spanish tapas and cocktail bar in central Geneva.

- Opening of the restaurant.
- Second in the kitchen: menus, purchasing, recipe costing and stock control.
- Sommelier support, with a Spanish wine list.
